

Lieutenant General Michael A. Rocco

Deputy Commandant for Manpower and Reserve Affairs, Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps

Lieutenant General Rocco received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from St. Johns University in New York and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in May 1983. After graduating from The Basic School in February 1984, he was meritoriously augmented and he reported to Naval Aviation Training Command, Pensacola, Florida, for flight training. Upon designation as a Naval Aviator in February 1986, Lieutenant General Rocco was assigned to HMLA-367 as an AH-1J pilot where he served in the Logistics Department.

He deployed to Okinawa, Japan, and was promoted to Captain in May 1988. He subsequently served in a variety of billets to include Training Officer, Flight Officer, NATOPS Officer, and Weapons and Tactics Instructor for Marine Light Attack Helicopter Squadron 367 (HMLA).

In August 1990, HMLA-367 deployed to Saudi Arabia in support of Operation Desert Shield/Desert Storm. Lieutenant General Rocco was assigned as a Flight Leader and led over 40 combat missions. Upon his return in March 1991, he was assigned as the Director of Safety and Standardization for HMLA-367.

In August 1992, Lieutenant General Rocco reported to Amphibious Warfare School (AWS) in Quantico, Virginia. While at AWS, he received the Marine Corps Aviation Association Lieutenant Colonel Robert J. Johnson Award, given to the outstanding aviation student. Upon graduation from AWS in May 1993, Lieutenant General Rocco reported to Fleet Marine Forces Europe for further assignment to the Royal Marine Exchange Program in Yeovilton, England. He deployed twice to Bardufoss, Norway, and made numerous deployments throughout Europe with the Royal Marines. Upon completion of the exchange tour, he was selected to attend the Naval Command and Staff Course at the Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island, where he received a Master of Arts Degree in National Policy and Strategic Studies.

Graduating from the Naval War College in May 1996, Lieutenant General Rocco received orders to 3d Marine Aircraft Wing (MAW) and was assigned to HMLA-369. In February 1997, Lieutenant General Rocco was assigned as the Operations Officer of Marine Medium Helicopter Squadron 164 (HMM) (Reinforced) and sailed with the 13th Marine Expeditionary Unit (MEU (SOC)) in August 1997.

Once back from deployment, Lieutenant General Rocco assumed the post of Executive Officer of HMLA-369. In February 1999, he assumed the post of Executive Officer of Marine Helicopter Training Squadron 303 (HMT). Later that same year, he was assigned to Headquarters 3d MAW, where he served as Staff Secretary for the Commanding General of 3d MAW. In June 2000, Lieutenant General Rocco was assigned as the Executive Officer of Marine Aircraft Group 39 (MAG). In March 2001, Lieutenant General Rocco assumed Command of HMLA-369 and after a successful deployment to Okinawa in support of the Unit Deployment Program, he relinquished command of the Gunfighters in January 2003.

In February 2003, he deployed with MAG-39 Headquarters in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF). Upon returning from OIF, he attended the Industrial College of the Armed Forces in Washington, D.C., and received a Master of Science Degree in National Resource Strategy. In June 2004, he was assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness. In January 2007, he was transferred back to 3d MAW for refresher training and served as the Commanding Officer, MAG-39 from June 2007 to June 2009.

In August 2009, he was promoted to Brigadier General and served as the Deputy Director, J-3, U.S. European Command, Patch Barracks, Stuttgart, Germany, until July 2011. Lieutenant General Rocco then served as the Director, Strategies and Plans Division, Plans, Policies, and Operations Directorate (PP&O), Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps in Washington, D.C. from July 2011 until June 2014. In June 2014, Lieutenant General Rocco assumed command of the 3d Marine Aircraft Wing, and remained in command until July 2016. From August to December 2016, he served as the Director, Manpower Plans and Policy Division, and from January to August of 2017, he served as the Director, Manpower Management Division, Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps. In August of 2017, Lieutenant General Rocco was promoted to his current rank and assumed the duties of his current position as the Deputy Commandant for Manpower and Reserve Affairs.

His personal decorations include the Defense Superior Service Medal with Gold Star, Legion of Merit, Distinguished Flying Cross with "V", Meritorious Service Medal, Air Medal with "V", Air Medal with numeral 2, Navy Commendation Medal, and Navy Achievement Medal with Gold Star.

He is married to Susan Rocco and they have three children, Michael, Matthew, and Mara.
